

Kristyn Culliver
Consultant / Investigator

Biography

Kristyn commenced her career in Human Resources in 2001 in various HR Advisory roles managing payroll services across WA State Government agencies including TAFE, Department of Planning, Department of Transport, Department of Fisheries, and the Metropolitan Cemeteries Board.

In 2006, Kristyn continued to develop her HR experience within the private sector in the United Kingdom working for investment Bank Barclays Capital as a Human Resource Operations Manager overseeing the management and leadership of a team of HR Administrators and Advisors.

During the time of the GFC Kristyn was instrumental in leading the management of the change and restructure of the Infrastructure Division of the Bank. This involved changes for a workforce of circa 2,000 employees. In addition, Kristyn oversaw the employees relations function including disciplinary and grievance management within the bank as well as being responsible for streamlining and developing Human Resources to ensure the continued performance of her team.

Since 2010, Kristyn has held various Operations and Advisory roles within Engineering and Law Firms in Melbourne. Since 2022, Kristyn has worked on classification projects, company restructures and managed end to end recruitment processes for WA State and Commonwealth Government agencies.

She is well versed in HR consulting across a range of issues in the government and private sector, as well as conducting workplace investigations.
